Not a Good Record. Among the Senate measures that failed to pass the Democratic House of the late Congress were bills to suppress polygamy, to relieve the national banks, to provide for the Presidential succession, to regulate the counting of the electoral votes and to establish a bankruptcy system. These were matters of the greatest importance. While they were defeated or neglected, nearly 1,000 bills of little account were passed. The great tidal-wave, "reorm" Congress made a queer record.

How He Became a Citizen. "Richelieu" Robinson, the distinguished anti-Britisher and lion-tail twister, tells how he was made a cit izen of the United States. More han forty years ago he took out his first papers of citizenship. The clerk repeated the usual formula, which required the applicant to renounce allegiance to all other governments, and concluded, without ever making pause, "but especially to the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland so help vou God give me a dollar!" "Par lon me, sir, Mr. Robinson said, "but shouldn't you have put a comma be ween God and the dollar?"

THE Washington correspondent of the Cleveland Leader says "The new Cabinet are not a bad looking set of men. Bayard's face is classic, and it might have stood for one of the Greek sculptors' models. Manning's is strong, and is almost the exact image of that of Cleveland, though it is more expressive as far as intellectual strength is concerned. Vilas looks like Roscoe Conkling in black hair, and Lamar's photograph resembles Tom Nast's typical fireeating Southerner. Whitney has the most pleasing face of any of the Cabinet Ministers. He looks like a good fellow and a high toned man. Garland has the homeliest face." PHILADELPHIA Press Mr. Haines. the picturesque speaker of the lower house of the Illinois legislature, intimates that he may add one more element of confusion to the already complex situation in that body. He is reported to contemplate resigning from the chair, having grown tired of the toy quickly. An anxiety to mingle in the wordy squabbles on the floor is probably at the bottom of this desire. As Mr. Haines has named the committees, which cannot | be changed without a two thirds vote, he has had all the fun he can possi bly extract out of the speakership, and now he wants to toss it, like a sucked orange, back into the arena. WHEN Mrs. McEiroy and the children vacated the White House little Miss Nellie Arthur carried her dog Taddie in her arms. She stood for a moment in the port cochere, and, holding the dog high above her head, said "Say good by to everybody, Taddie." The dog, obedient to her request, emitted several sharp barks, after which the little miss sprang into the carriage. A Dreadful Disease.

Read, ponder and profit thereby. Kemp's Bulsam for the Throat and Lungs is conceded by all who have used it to excel any preparation in the market as a complete throat and lung hesler. All persons afflicted with that dreadful disease—Consumption—will find speedy reease—Consumption—will that speed re-lief and in a majority of cases a perma-nent cure. CLEVELAND Leader Grover Cleve land starts out with the odium of having one of Boss Tweed's intimate associates in his Cabinet. The worst of the President rather than his creature. The fag end of the old Tweed ring is decidedly on the top.

GOTELNO I' or, of New York, will soon have an eperaturity to show how the milk gets into the coccanut The New York State Senate has passed the bill making twelve hours a legal day's work for street car drivers, and there is little doubt that the Home will concur. This is the bill which Grover Cleveland vetoed last year, on a thin proteins that it was unconstitutional. This will give Gov. Hill a chance to show the attitude of the Democratic party toward corporations and workingmen's rights. If he signs the bill he will thereby condomn Mr. Cleveland. If he vetnes it again, he will increase the defection of workingmen from the Democratic party.

Can ver later threen. The new administration takes the same position in ti matter of the Oklahoma raids as del the administrations of Hayes and Arthur. In fact, there is no other posicion that the Executive can take. Congress having failed to take the proper action to open the lands, the ractors must wait until the proper action has been taken. Mr. Adams abandoned the controversy, evidently thinking "discretion the better part of valor," greatly to the amusement of the bystauders.

No Hope for the Boomers. WASHINGTON, D. C., March 14.-President Cleveland yesterday afternoon is sued a proclamation warning Oklahoma boomers not to enter or remain upon the Oklahoma lands in the Indian Territory If this warning, the President says, is not respected. "The military power of the United States will be invoked to abate all such unauthorized possession and to prevent such threatened entry and occupation, and to remove all such in traders from the Indian lands." NLINTH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 13. Mr. Cameron (of Pennsylvania) submitted a resolution embodying a list of standing and select committees for the Forty-ninth Congress. The important changes are as follows: Committee on Coast Defenses-Mr. Dolph, as Chairman; and Messrs. Cameron, Sewell, Hawler, Maxey, McPherson and Fair, as members. Appropriations-Mahone succeeds Lo gan, and froman succeeds Rausom.

Ransom takes the place of Bayard as

Mr. Teller is Chairman of the Committee on Mines and Mining in place of Mr Bowen. The changes on the Committee on Pub-lie Buildings and Grounds are the substitution of Mr. Spooner for Mr. Cameron (of Wisconsin), and the addition of Messrs, Stanford and Camden. On the Committee on Public Lands, Mr. Teller succeeds Mr. Hill, Mr. Cock-rell succeeds Mr Walker and Mr. Walthall succeeds Mr. Slater.

On the Committee on Rules, Mr. Blackurn succeeds Mr. Pendleton. McPherson is made Chairman of the ommittee to investigate the condition of the Potomac River front.

The Judiciary Committee is made up as follows Edmunds, Ingalis, McMillan, Hoar, Wilson (of Iowa), Evarts, Pugh, Vest and Jackson.

Mr. Cameron's resolution was adopted. Mr. Sherman (of Ohio), addressing the Chair, said he wished to decline to serve on the Finance Committee.

Mr. Harris suggested that the usual method was to ask to be excused.

Mr. Sherman reforted that he saw no necessity for asking to be excused—that he positively declined to serve.

Mr. Ingalls submitted a resolution, which was laid over, calling on the President for all the information in his possesslou respecting the Oklahoma lands, and what, if any action, had been taken in regard thereto.

Mr. Beck announced that Mr. Ransom

New York, March 14 .-- General Grant sat in his library yesterday writing letters. Occasionally he replies to some of the myriad letters which come to him, asking for his autograph. This he does if the request is from a friend or one of his old soldiers. He had considerable appetite yesterday, asked for food several times, and surprised his family by eat-ling a chop. This is the first solid food he has taken in many days. He had some little many days. He had some little pain in swallowing. His sleep was disturbed by a slight catarrh, caused by a cold which he had caught. Toward morning he slept better. At noon his pulse and temperature were about normal. His voice is strong. Dr. J. A. A New Danger to Trinity Church, New York. NEW YORK, March 14 .- Trinity Church Corporation, which has held its vast estate in this city securely for more than a century against frequent assaults by cialments of the Anneke, Jane and other wills, is now attacked from a new quar-ter and in a novel way. Mr. Clinton Roosevelt, a lawyer, at 52 Exchange Place, has filed a petition in the State Legislature for the dissolution of the corporation on the ground that its charter has been violated. Mr. Roosevelt explatined to a reporter yesterday that he based his petition on the fact that the enormous property was no longer held for church purposes; that the pastors of Trinity no longer preach orthodox Episcopalianism, and that the corporation has become a political secrety. He denied become a political society. He denied that he was acting for any of the claimants to the Anneke, Jans estate.

A Passionate Negress Kills Her Child and Tries to Burn Its Body-Abe Bussard Again to the Front.

A Brutal Father Given a Taste of Own Bitter Medicine by Indignant Neighbors.

LOUISVILLE, Ky , March 14.—Gambling has been open and gamblers boastful of their power in this city for many years. Several squares in the business center were honey-combed with richly-furnished apartments for poker, keno and faro The Chief of Police, Chief of the Fire Department and other city officials were, according to common talk, financially interested. The vigorous State laws against gaming were a dead letter. An employe of some place would occasionally pay a fine, which was regarded much as a license fee, and the Prosecuting Attorney, it was understood derived a good revenne by collecting his share of the fines. The city was practi-cally given over neck and heels to the gang.

A few weeks ago the Commercial began a vigorous fight on the vice. Daily editorials appeared urging the officials to enforce the laws, which yesterday's experience shows were amply sufficient. Columns of biting ridicale were launched the trifling raids of the police on petty gangs of "contz" players in dark alloys.

Colonel Dick Watts, for years a prom inent Councilman, had given occasion for the attack by open boasts that his new building, the Palais Royal, would be one of the finest gambling-houses in the world, and promises to open it in a blaze of splender seidom witnessed.

The city authorities have at last succumbed to the demand for the enforce ment of the law. Yesterday morning the Commercial urged the Chief of Police to use the power given him by the law to dens at once instead of wait ing for the slow action of the jury. At ten o'clock last night the police ited the houses, one by one, and to-night there is no gambling in Louisville.

A Mother's Crime.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 14,-Near Knott store in Anson County, a few days ago, Mrs. Nelson Lockhart, a negress, murdered her ten-year-old daughter, une then attempted to burn the remains. In a passion she knocked the child on the head, killing her, and then to cover the crime, laid the child on the hearth and raked fire around her feet and legs. To make it appear that the child been burned to death accidentally, the woman took a water bucket, went into the yard where some children were play-ing and told them to go into the house and see if the girl was on fire. She then went to a spring some distance from the house, notwithstanding there was a well in the yard. The children found the child lying on the hearth with her clothing on ire. An alarm was given, and men working near by found the child dead, although burned by found the child dend, atthough owned only on the feet and legs. This caused suspicion, and when a clot of blood was found on the head, the Coroner was notified. The woman was arrested.

READING, PA., March 14 .-- The Welch Mountain outlaw, Abe Buzzard, who, it is stated has been seen in this city and vicinity lately, was again heard from yesterday. This time he quietly walked into a grocery store in Morgantown, a small village near the line of Lancaster small village near the line of Lancaster County, where he bought some cheese and crackers. He was recognized, but was in no fear of being taken, being armed with an ugly looking pistol about a foot long. He then went to the hotel, where he indwiged in a drink. He was also known there.

Abe considers himself a very much injured man. He said he would not injure my one if he was let alone and not hounded like a dog. The Morgantowners' fears he appeased by telling them they need not be afraid, as he would not rob them, they having treated him properly. Buzzard departed without any one having made an attempt to a rrest him.

A Brute Belabored.

TARAHVILLE, O., March 11. - On Wednesday evening, Tom Howard's children were late returning from school. They excused themselves by saying they had played on the road. The father, in a paroxsym of anger, beat the children in a shameful manner. Both were so badly urt that they had to receive medical reatment.

The citizens became indignant, and last night took Howard to the center of the village, tied him to a post, stripped him to the waist and whipped him until the blood run. Notice was served that the post will be left standing, and wife-beaters and petty offenders will be punished

The Strike in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., March 13.--Not a sign of disaffection among the employes of the Wabash or Missour! Pacific yards here is shown so far, and it is thought that the notice given them by Vice-President Hoxie that the wages of September will be restored has been satisfactory. The committee from Sedalia, after visiting the yards, returned without apparently having accomplished anything. The Missourt Pacific has been sending long trains of freight westward right along without interference. The freight cars being held at Sedalia are those which were there on the day of the strike or are not billed through. It is injuring the trade of the town and western country more than that of this city. Colonel Meier does not think it will be iecessary to send more troops, as THE CRISIS HAS PASSED.

AT OTHER POINTS. So far as actual developments are concerned, the strike at Sedalia and elsecerned, the strike at Sedalia and else-where remains unchanged. The Gov-ernor has issued a proclamation exhort-ing the peace officers of the State to do their duty in preserving the peace. Gen-eral Jamison has decided to hold no further conference with the stellers but further conferences with the strikers, but ourmer conferences with the strikers, but to take active steps if the strikers persist in stopping the traffic of the road.

The employes at De Soto, Mo., have been rewarded for not striking by a restoration of the wages paid them up to September last.

At other points the strike remains without the development of any new or interesting features, but the men show no signs of weakening. The Hazen Court-Martial. WASHINGTON, D. C., March 13.-In the

The Judge Advocate offered in evidence a momorandum, which accompanied the report to the Secretary of War on December 11th, 1883, or ntaining the joint December 11th, 1885, or maining the joint decision of the Secretaries of War and Navy that it was impracticable to send relief to Greely that year.

General Hazen's counsel opposed the admission of this, on the grounds that the issue before the court involved only the issue before the court involved only the decision of the Secretary of War, and not the joint decision of that officer and the Secretary of the Navy. The court decided to admit the memorandum. At the afternoon session of Edmund Hudson, editor of the Sunday Capital, took the stand, and was asked if ie would state who wrote a paragraph which appeared in his paper March 1st, intimating that General Hazen had pre-pared a letter in which he undertook to lay the whole responsibility of the fallure to relieve the Greely expedition in 1883 or Secretary Lincoln's shoulders.

The Judge-Advocate objected to put-ting in evidence extracts from papers; he could not permit the injection of such matter.
Mr. Mackey created a sensation by his statement that it was proposed to trace the paragraph in the Capital by an unbroken chain to the very door of the Secretary of War himself, and that he vould show that it was written by the hand of authority.

Our Atomement. The play of "Her Atonement" was given last night, with Donnelly as the policoman and the boy Frank Dean as the stars of the company. A woman is betrayed, a mysterious murder is committed, a lot of money is stolen, soldiers march off to the war and return, when the murderess confesses her guilt, takes poison and yields up the ghost. The policeman was good and so was the boy, but their support was inferior, and our atonement is thus expressed. The company has a good ound and a fair orchestra. The entertainment may be briefly summed up as a circus—all show on the outside and but ittle of merit under the tent.

The Natural Result. Mr. John Leinhart sustained severe in juries one night last week by jumping out of a second story window while asleep He with several friends was celebrating Cleveland's inauguration by giving party at the residence of R. C. Harkrader onth of town. The party was continued until late in the night, and at the solicitation of the boys John decided to stay all night. During the night he arose in his sleep, walked to the window and jumped out. He is severely bruised, and it will be some time before he is himsel again,—Maroa News.

Reduced Prices. The prices of admission for "The World," which have heretofore been $1, 75c and 50c, will in the coming engagement be 35, 50 and 75 cents-the same company and all the fine scenery. The sale of seats will begin Wednesday evenng at Curtis & Co.'s.

Prof. Bull. In answer to a rumor that has been circulated in regard to Prof. Olef Bull leaving the Decatur Musical College, I will any that he has had no intention of leaving; on the contrary, has renewed his contract with us. Prof. Bull has done so much towards raising the standard of music in Decatur that neither the College nor the people of Decatur generally can afford to lose h m. CAPT. ROWELL'S OPINION. He Talks About President Cleveland and Capt. J. H. Rowell, member of congress from this district, has returned to his home at Bloomington, where he has been interviewed ULEVELAND.

When asked what he thought about President Ck veland, the Captain replied: where weil. I rather like his style. And what pleases me a good deal is that he has a man at his hand who has lots of sense and nerve—I mean Col. Lamont, his secretary, who is a remarkably keen and earnest man, entirely in Art. Cleveland's confidence. You know yin Art. Cleveland's confidence. it is a good thing for a public man, no matter how talented and brilliant, to have a wise, hard-basked frend at his side, who, being out-side the pale of direct responsibility, oan sug-gest and restrain, and savise as to what the people say. Lamont is just that man, and Mr. Cleyeland knows him and trusts him."

"What is the general opinion of Mr. Cleveland's cabinet? asked the reportor.
"In answer to that I will say," said Mr. Rowell, "that it does not give general satisfaction at Washington, either to the general public or the democracy. The country is liable to be misied on this matter, because the mass of influential democrats at Washington at present fare seeking office, and what they say to the mised on this matter, because the mass of influential democrats at Washington at present are seeking office, and what they say to the press and to their general acquaintance is not what they say in confidence. The cabinet is weak and faulty and itable to serious criticism in soveral points. Lamar is the chief objection. He is the champion of Jefferson Davis to begin with. He is, like Cartheld, a college man, a lover of books, a polished gentleman, an orator; but, unlike Gaiffeld, he does not love the public—he dislikes meeting the public; he is a brilliant man now and then in somety, but he does not reinsh intercourse with the masses, a grievous fault with a man who is put forward as the head of the Interior department, whose great duties require the most intimete relatious with the people of the nation. He is a man who dislikes business and its detail, and contesses that he does not relish hard work. And yet he is put in charge of a depariment with such bureaux as penslons, patents, Indians and lands; a department that calls for the greatest genius for detail and the most Indiantiple industry—the very opposites of his special abilities. Congress manifested its fears as to his capacity by providing, as soon as it became known Lamar was to be in charge of the interior, an emirely new other, that of first assistant, at a salary of $5,00 a year. It Lamar has tuck to provide a first-class business man for the piace, he may disappoint all who know him, for he is undoubtedly an able lawyer and a bitiny man."

THE REST OF EM.

Mr. Rowell went on to say that Whitney was THE REST OF 'EM.

Mr. Rowell went on to say that Whitney was objectionable because the son of "Coat Oil Payne;" Bayard, because he has been so to "Coat Oil Payne;" Bayard, because he has been so to be monopolists, and Dan Manning, because he has made a fortune by national bank figuring, and was so intimately connected with Twesd and the New York gang. He especially admires Garland, whom he looks upon as a thoroughly worthy man and agains. Visas he hares tariand, whom he looks upon as a too oughly worthy man and a genius. Vifas, he thinks, will not meet the views of the gonoral public, because for years he has been exclu-sively employed as the attorney of the Chicago & Northwestern road.
